

10.04.01 Information Security

Business Continuity and Information Security

Partner university: L.N. Gumilyov Eurasian National University (Kazakhstan)

As a result of mastering the program, alumni receive a set of system-analytical competencies, leadership and communication skills for working in a team and unique experience in the field of information security of Russia and Kazakhstan, and also acquires project management skills in the field of information technology security.

Curriculum features

- Information security methodology
- Preventing confidential information leaks
- Fundamentals of banking
- Modern information technologies and information security in financial organizations
- Computer network security
- Information security risk management
- Blockchain technologies and cybersecurity
- Business continuity management
- Disaster recovery of information systems

Many companies such as Ak Kamal Security, PACIFICA, Almakom Trade, IRIS Enterprise Services, Oberig IT and others welcome our students. Program alumni are employed in positions related to research, design and operation of systems dedicated to corporate business continuity to solve information problems, analyze and assess information security.